Introduction to HTML
1-Day Course

Join our 1-day comprehensive Introduction to HTML course designed to equip you with the foundational skills needed to create and manage web pages. Whether you're looking to build a personal website or enhance your professional skill set, this course provides practical knowledge and hands-on experience.

Course Prerequisites

No prior knowledge or experience with HTML or web development is required.

Skills Acquired

- Understand the basics of HTML and CSS.
- Learn to create well-structured web pages.
- Gain the ability to enhance web pages with styling and formatting.
- Acquire skills to link web pages and create a cohesive website.

Course Materials Provided:

- Comprehensive course notes.
- Reference sheets with HTML and CSS tags and attributes.
- Access to example code snippets and templates.

What to Bring:

- Laptop (if possible) for hands-on practice.
- Pen and paper for additional notes.

Course Topics

Introduction to HTML:

- Understanding the structure and syntax of HTML.
- Creating and organizing content with HTML tags.

Basic HTML Elements:

- Using headings, paragraphs, lists, links, and images.
- Incorporating tables and forms.

Introduction to CSS:

- Basics of CSS and how to apply styles to HTML.
- Inline, internal, and external CSS.

Linking Web Pages:

- Creating hyperlinks to connect different pages.
- Using anchor tags for internal navigation.

Practical Examples and Exercises:

- Hands-on exercises to practice HTML and CSS.
- Building a simple multi-page website.

Tools and Best Practices:

- Introduction to web development tools and editors.
- Best practices for writing clean, maintainable code.

Timing

The course runs from 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM with breaks included. Customized timing can be arranged when booking.

Register Today

Secure your spot in our Introduction to HTML course and start your journey into web development. Contact us at (+61) 412 464 737 or email contact@ferntree.net.au for more details and to book your session.